

About BUSH WAYS LODGES

Set amongst the most stunning natural highlights of Botswana, BUSH WAYS LODGES offer ample opportunities to explore the African Bush and admire its fantastic fauna and flora.

Our camps have been developed to simultaneously provide the most intimate immersion into Botswana's unique environment and culture, contribute to the local communities' development and participate in the preservation of the country's pristine wilderness areas.

Operating in incredible yet fragile ecosystems, it was very important for us to build and manage our lodges with the lowest ecological impact and carbon footprint.

We also collaborate closely with the local communities to ensure they can benefit first hand from tourism development and encourage community members to engage with our guests and provide them with a true Botswana experience.
